Student Consent to Disclose Education Records

Dean of Students Office

(To be completed by the student)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records created or maintained by a school that receives Federal funds. Students who attend The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG) retain the right of privacy in their education records. UNCG may provide access to a student’s education records to a third party if the student provides written consent using this form or as provided in FERPA and UNCG policy available on-line at http://studentconduct.uncg.edu/policy/ferpa.pdf. A “qualified parent” may receive access upon student written consent or with a copy of the parent’s most recent IRS 1040 in which the student is claimed as a dependent.
